PlayPanel® Room Dividers

Children's Factory® PlayPanel® Room Dividers

Lightweight PlayPanels® help divide rooms into more functional spaces, allowing children to learn in smaller groups, with less distraction.

When ordering singular PlayPanels®, we suggest ordering at 1 set of cantilever legs (CF900-903) for every 3 panels. Single PlayPanels® DO NOT include cantilever legs, they must be ordered additionally.

Double Claws, included with single PlayPanels®, create flexible hinges so panels can be attached to each other horizontally, vertically, or even collapsed for convenient storage.

Choosing the Right Chair

The child should be able to sit comfortably with their feet flat on the floor, and knees bent at a 90°.

If the child's feet do not touch the floor the chair is too tall.

CHILDREN'S FACTORY® & SAFETY

Children's Factory® products received the UL GREENGUARD® Gold Certification which certifies our products and materials for low chemical emissions. Our materials are rigorously tested for harmful chemicals as well as emission levels from our final products in order to preserve indoor air quality. We also adhere to annual re-certification testing and a quarterly monitoring program to ensure ongoing compliance.

At Children's Factory®, we prioritize the well-being of your little ones. That's why we're proud to inform you that all of our soft foam products are CertiPUR-US certified. This certification guarantees that our foam meets the highest standards for material, emissions, and durability. With CertiPUR-US, you can trust that our foam products provide exceptional comfort while still adhering to strict and necessary guidelines.

Our dedication to CPSIA certification means that every item in our diverse product range, from soft play products to early-learning furniture, adheres to the strictest safety protocols. We understand the importance of creating an environment where your child can thrive without any compromise on safety. This certification reflects our efforts to provide products that not only spark imagination but also guarantee a secure and worry-free play and developmental experience for your child.
