CHILDREN'S FACTORY

2026

WHERE WE BEGAN

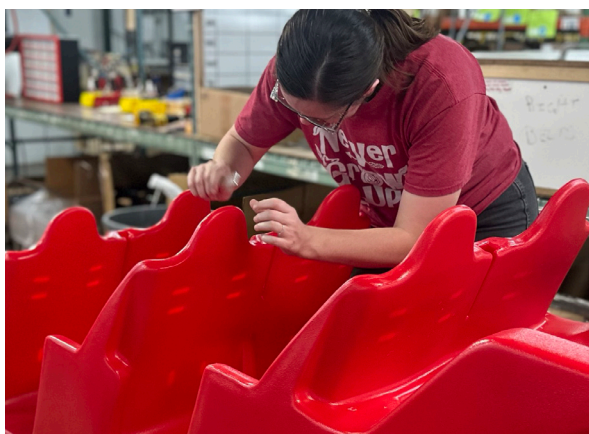

It all started with a need: safe, soft play environments for preschoolers didn't exist.

From this realization, our founders created the first geometric foam shapes, sewn by a local women's quilting group in the back of an old tavern. What began as a small, family-driven endeavor grew into a company with a big vision; helping children explore, grow, and learn through purposeful, fun, and imaginative products.

Today, we operate from two facilities in Union, Missouri, employing 150 dedicated individuals, many with over 25 years of experience. Their passion and craftsmanship ensure every product meets the highest standards of quality, safety, and care. Rooted in Midwestern values of hard work, collaboration, and family, we're proud to create tools that spark creativity, confidence, and growth for children, caregivers, and educators alike.

Our founders didn't just build a company; they built a community; opening their home to over 30 foster children and inspiring us to do more. Guided by their legacy, we continue to innovate, expanding our impact to foster learning, nurture children, and support those shaping the next generation.

At Children's Factory, we believe the future is built one moment of play at a time. Together, let's create a world where every child can imagine, inspire, and learn

Traditional or Flexible.

We have you covered.

A Teacher's Perspective on Blending Seating Styles

"In my classroom, mixing traditional and flexible seating has made a noticeable difference in how my students learn and interact. Some kids focus best at a desk, while others need the freedom to wiggle, stretch out, or sit with a friend. By offering both options, I see more engagement, better behavior, and increased independence. Students feel empowered to choose the space that helps them do their best work, and that ownership translates into a more positive, productive classroom community." Mrs. Willis Southpoint Elementary Teacher

Combining traditional and flexible seating supports the diverse learning needs of children by offering both structure and choice. Traditional chairs and desks provide a stable foundation for focused tasks, while flexible options; like soft seating, floor cushions, and bean bags; encourage movement, creativity, and collaboration. This balance empowers students to self-regulate, improves engagement, and fosters a more inclusive, adaptive learning environment where every child can thrive.

It's recommended that tabletops should be 8" from the top of a child's thigh to the bottom of the table.

CHAIR TO TABLE GUIDE

This graph and chart are based on average recommendations from several sources, and should only be used as a guide. By measuring the child as directed above, you will ensure the best fit possible. If measuring the child is not practical, use this chart as a starting point. If you are still unsure of what size chair to order, go the next size up to give your child room to grow!

ANGELES® RIDER TRIKES

Generations of Fun. Built to Last.

Don't take our word for it.
Check out these reviews!

As a former preschool teacher I can say that Angeles makes the very best trikes. Delivery was fast and even the FedEx employee who brought them to our son's family said that they were getting the best with Angeles trikes. Our son was impressed! Our grandchildren LOVE them and that makes us happy.

This trike is very sturdy and not prone to tipping. The elongated seat allows each child to find a comfortable position for their body. Great option for those children who have not yet mastered trike pedals. It is very sturdy and we expect it to last for many, many years.

Bought these for the older children in my family day care. Was tired of buying cheap ride-ons that needed to be replaced every year. Very impressed with the quality, very heavy duty. I love that the tires are rubber as my kids wear out and split all the plastic tires on the other brands. Will definitely be purchasing more.

NYTIMES: Stable, smooth-riding, and incredibly durable, this tricycle is expensive, but it lasts years, if not decades.

On average our trikes last 10+ years!
